

Leaders in Human Resources Honored at Annual HRO Today Awards Gala

PHILADELPHIA, PA – May 20, 2015 – On the evening of May 4th, the HRO Today Services and Technology Association Awards recognized 10 leaders in human resources at their annual Awards Gala that took place at the 2015 HRO Today Forum North America. The awards have been the highlight of the year and an aspiration for those in the HR industry in Europe, Middle East & Africa (EMEA), North America (NA), Asia Pacific (APAC) and globally.

Each year the HRO Today Services and Technology Association selects a theme and the awards criteria revolve around that theme. The theme of this year's event was Be Inspired! - Recognizing Excellence in HR. The HRO Today Awards Gala is the industry's best-known and most prestigious event that brings together the most inspirational innovators and market shaker-uppers in the HR industry.

The following companies and individuals have made an inspirational impact on a product, group, company or the industry as a whole. All nominations were required to provide demonstrable evidence of how the nominee(s) garnered inspirational results through their efforts within their organizations and/or the HR industry within the awards year.
