

Honouring HR

We recognise a roundup of HR leaders who are driving business change.

By The Editors

HR faces great challenges today. Top talent expects employers to deliver an exemplary experience, new technologies, enriching learning programmes, career growth, robust benefits plans, job flexibility, mobility opportunities—and the list goes on.

In this demanding environment, we think it's important to recognise leaders that have gone above and beyond in the realm of HR. Our 2020 HRO Today EMEA Superstars are playing a larger role in business strategy than ever before, delivering innovative solutions that solve today's problems in order to get ahead for tomorrow's success.

Our roundup recognises three categories of leadership because each has a significant impact on the successful management of human capital: Providers, Practitioners, and Consultants/Advisors/Analysts/Academics/Investors/Thought Leaders. Superstars were nominated externally through an online tool and by the HRO Today staff.

PROVIDERS

RELOCATION

Barry Morris President and CEO CapRelo

Barry Morris ensures that resources are aligned to deliver value to CapRelo's core customer groups. His tremendous depth of experience and expertise include a history of expanding global organisations and delivering products and services to public and private sectors. Prior to 2017, Morris held prominent leadership roles with technology brands such as Dell EMC, Polycom, Cogent Communications, and Nortel Networks. Committed to giving back, he can often be seen volunteering at the Community Farm affiliated with CapRelo, which donates fresh produce and protein to the food insecure. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Georgia and is an active member in key industry groups.
