

Association Value Proposition

The HRO Today Association is a global membership channel and community dedicated to

- Professional Development via monthly Livestream sessions – 20- or 30-minute learning sessions focused on talent acquisition and management, learning and development, employee engagement, employee services and benefits, and outsourcing.
- Grow and Strengthen Your Network by connecting to leaders who work in and manage Human Resources and the service and technology functions and processes throughout.
- Providing opportunities to participate in Best Practice Sharing conversations, join committees and work groups to advance the profession of HR, and develop better processes and tools to improve performance of HR systems, partners and technology.
- Creating HR Service and Technology Industry Tools through reviewing and creating industry standards and processes to improve customer satisfaction, business performance and/or reduce costs.
- HR Knowledge and Access to research, reports, case studies, podcasts, demos, articles, and trends pertaining to the functions of Human Resources, focusing on the services, processes and technology in Talent Acquisition, Talent Management, Employee Relations/Services, and HR Outsourcing.
