

Position: Global Board of Advisor

Reports into: Senior Manager, Membership Services and/or Association Executive Director

Revised: 1/19/22

Summary: The Global Board of Advisors is comprised of industry executives in various HR roles. The board includes three work groups that are segmented by regional geography: North America group, EMEA group, and APAC group. Each group has 10 – 20 members from a cross-section of industries to ensure a working team with a good breadth of knowledge and experience.

Involvement with the Board of Advisors is a great opportunity for maximizing membership engagement and benefits, as well as serving as a personal forum for best practice sharing, networking, learning and leadership. Advisors provide and receive information on industry trends and Association programs.

Position Responsibilities:

Duties and responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the following.

1. Be familiar with the Association's purpose, programs, and goals (value proposition).
2. Positively promote the work of the Association and advocate for its interests.
3. Provide advice on the development of new programs and benefits for members.
4. Serve as an ambassador and advocate of the Association.
5. Share the Association's digital content (social media) by commenting, liking, reposting, sharing our posts/email.
6. Actively identify and recruit new Association members.
7. Agree to serve the best interest of the HRO Today Association.

Position Requirements: Term for board of advisor role is a minimum 3-year commitment. Attendance at 3/4 board meetings is expected.
