

A Step-by-Step Guide to Adding Your HRO Today Association Membership to Your LinkedIn Profile

1. On your profile, scroll down until you see the Experience section. Click the plus sign on the upper right side of the Experience section to add a new Experience

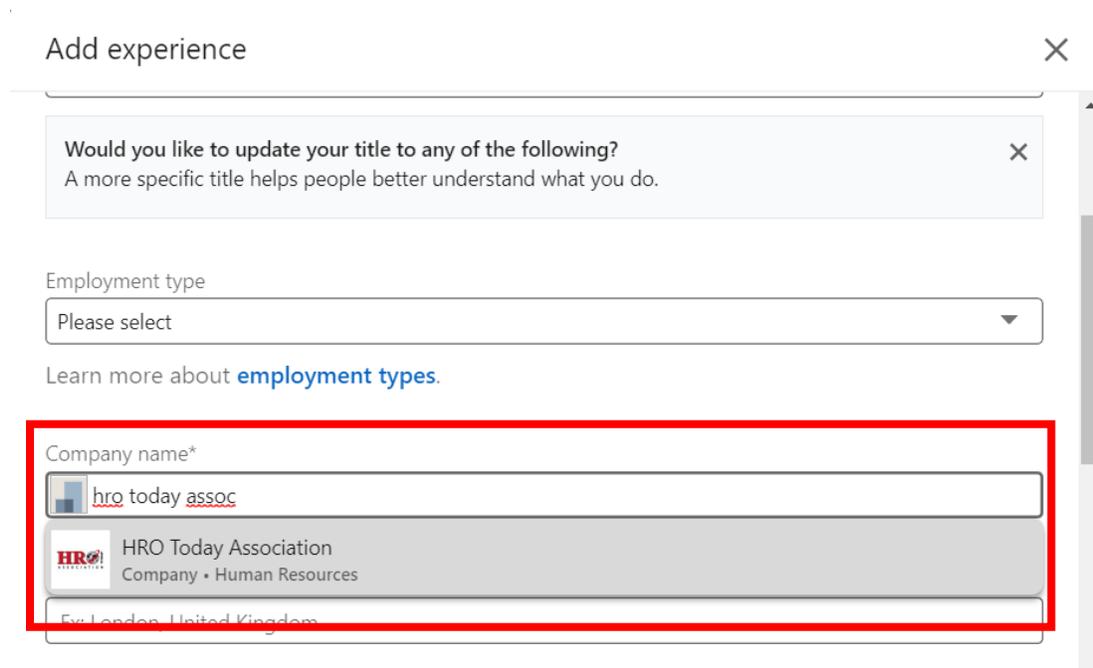

The screenshot shows a LinkedIn profile for Erin Yates. The 'Experience' section is highlighted with a red box. To the right of the 'Experience' section, a plus sign icon is also highlighted with a red box. The profile header shows the name 'Erin Yates (She/Her)' and the title 'Senior Manager, Membership Services at HRO Today Association'. Below the header, there is a section for 'CAE Core Resources' and a 'See all activity' link. To the right, there are two featured articles: 'Leadership Stories: 5-Minute Lessons in Leading People' and 'Emotional Intelligence for Project Managers (Blinkist...)'. The 'Add profile section' button is visible in the top right corner.

2. In the Experience pop-up, enter the following information:

Title: Member

Company name: HRO Today Association

The screenshot shows the 'Add experience' pop-up form. The 'Company name*' field is highlighted with a red box. The form includes a question: 'Would you like to update your title to any of the following? A more specific title helps people better understand what you do.' Below this is a dropdown menu for 'Employment type' with the text 'Please select'. A link 'Learn more about employment types.' is provided. The 'Company name*' field contains the text 'hro today assoc' and a dropdown menu showing 'HRO Today Association' with the subtitle 'Company • Human Resources'. The location 'Ex: London, United Kingdom' is visible at the bottom of the form.

3. Click Save. Your new Experience entry should look something like this:
