Why Sponsor HRO Today Events?

HRO Today the only international source for both strategic and topic specific conferences, webcasts, on-demand video and custom-built events related to talent management. While most associations focus on quantity of attendees, HRO Today is dedicated to quality and attendee experience. Our case-study approach allows us to acquire high-level attendees and our tech showcases still provide vendors a chance to showcase their product.

Our attendee acquisition process is solutions oriented. HRO Today surveys our attendees to pinpoint their challenges and introduces them to sponsors that can help them be successful. HRO Today strictly enforces an attendance policy to guarantee the best possible experience for our sponsors and attendees. HRO Today topic focused events maintain a 70/30 split between end users and vendors. Why attend an event with 400 attendees only to search for the 100-200 buyers? Cut through the marketing noise by sponsoring HRO Today events.
